

CUSTOM SEMINAR REQUEST FORM

Can't make it to one of our regional seminars? Or, perhaps you want to train your staff in your own pool? Aquaticnet.com custom seminars are a great way to learn aquatic techniques that will be applicable to your unique caseload mix, pool depth and temperature. Better yet? You don't lose any downtime with your patients.

Curious, but not sure a custom seminar is for you? Tell us a little more about your needs – if we can match you with one of our instructors, you'll have the opportunity to book a date. No commitments required!
